

Question 3:

(20/30 marks)

Determine if the following statement Correct or false and correct the false one.

- 1- Prosperity of a nation is dependent on the natural resources availability
- 2- There are various criteria of classifying natural resources.
- 3- Biotic resources originate from the biosphere
- 4- Renewable resources are formed over a long geological time period
- 5- Renewable and nonrenewable resources are energy sources
- 6- Plots, houses, plantations, and ponds are example of natural resources
- 7- A major part of natural resources is consumed in the west.
- 8- Developing countries produce over 75% of global industrial waste and greenhouse gases.
- 9- Human standard of living and the health of the ecosystem are indicators of sustainable use of resources in any country
- 10- Actual resources are resources that are known to exist, but haven't been utilized yet
- 11- Stocks are part of an actual resource
- 12- Forest vary in composition and diversity
- 13- Among all continents, Asia has the largest forested area
- 14- Forest is important source of development of dams, recreation and mining
- 15- Deforestation rate is relatively low in tropics countries than in temperate
- 16- For ecological balance 35% area should be under forest cover
- 17- Commercial logging practice is prevalent in tribal areas
- 18- The remaining unfrozen freshwater is found mainly as groundwater
- 19- Rivers changes its course during floods and tons of valuable soil is lost
- 20- In most arid regions of the world the rains are unpredictable

Best wishes

Dr. Doaa Adel Elemam