
Practical & Oral Toxicology exam

4th year (Zoology), 2020

Part (1): Practical Exam,

Question1: Complete the following sentences:

- 1) Pollutants can be grouped into two categories.....and.....
- 2) Equipments that are used to control air pollution include.....and.....
- 3) Dose can be defined as.....

Question 2: Put true or false:

- (1) Common physical tests of water include temperature, solids concentrations and turbidity ().
- (2) Secondary pollutants are defined as which are emitted directly from identifiable sources ().
- (3) Chemical precipitation is the most widely used method for heavy metal removal ().

Question 3: write on the following:

- 1- Controlling Soil Pollution.
- 2- Differentiate between poisons and venoms with examples.

Part (2): Oral Exam

- 1) Why do we use acids for heavy metal extraction?

Best Wishes

Dr./Basma Sheta